

MARK S. BULLOCK

SECURITY EXECUTIVE • SENIOR NATIONAL SECURITY/LAW ENFORCEMENT EXECUTIVE • SES US DIPLOMAT • CPA

Mark has over 35 years of leadership experience in law enforcement and security practices in both government and corporate operations. He served in the U.S. Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI) for 26 years in roles of increasing responsibility where he effectively led investigative programs targeting international and domestic terrorism, economic espionage, cybercrimes, white-collar crime, and criminal enterprise matters. In 2001, he served as Special Agent In-Charge of the FBI's Cleveland Division leading that office through the 9/11 crisis response. Subsequently, he was promoted to Assistant Director over HR and adeptly reengineered the FBI's hiring and promotional processes to attain the diversity and critical skills needed to meet the FBI's post 9/11 national security mission. From 2005 until his retirement in 2009, he served as the Legal Attaché London leading the FBI's most critical international office. Mark received a Presidential Meritorious Executive Award (top 5% of federal executives) for his service.

Since 2009, Mark has served in executive security roles in the private sector first as Senior VP, Head of Financial Crime and Intelligence and Global Risks Advisor with RBS Citizens Bank where he focused on identification and mitigation of physical security threats. Then he served as Director of Security with "ComEd," the electric utility in northern Illinois, where he led the Intelligence, Theft of Energy, Regional Investigations and Physical Security functions. Mark has recently taken on a role as Director of Physical Security with Allstate.

Mark continues to work with FBI leadership to enhance the diversity, equity and inclusion of the bureau. Mark earned his Bachelor of Science degree in Accounting in 1981 from the University of Illinois in Champaign-Urbana, IL and became a Certified Public Accountant (CPA) in 1982.
